A REAL MAN-EATER TURNS UP NEAR MAUI

JAPANESE FISHERMAN DIVES AFTER HIS NET AND SHARK SEIZES HIS ARM AND BITES IT OFF AT THE ELBOW—ONE OF FEW RECORDED CASES OF SHARK ATTACKING LIVE MAN IN HAWAIIAN WATERS.

WAILUKU, Maui, October 12.—The Maui News says:

On Tuesday of this week a Japanese fisherman at Kalepolepo, on the leeward side of this island, was attacked by a monster man-eating shark and had his arm bitten off at the elbow.

It was about nine o'clock in the morning when the affair happened. The fisherman was looking down through a box with a glass bottom to see whether any fish were in his net and see that there were some he dived down to close the net and bring up the fish. No sooner had he gotten down than a large shark seized his arm at the shoulder and stripped the flesh off the arm to the elbow and twisted the arm off at the point and went off with the arm.

The wounded man bled freely and it is a wonder he did not bleed to death. He was brought to Wailuku and reached here about one o'clock the same day, and was taken at once to the Maui Hospital where his arm was amputated near the shoulder by Dr. R. H. Dinegar.

As the man is a native of the northern part of Japan and but few Japanese here are able to speak the dialect of that part of Japan it is impossible to get a full account of the affair.

The man is doing nicely and will recover although he had but little blood in his system at the time he was operated on.

The occurrence described is a very rare one in these waters. It has often been claimed that there are none of the real man-eating sharks here, and that the sharks which do infest local waters will not attack a living human being. In many cases natives have swam among them, and the sharks have usually been easily frightened off.

There are plenty of cases in which sharks have eaten dead human bodies, but it is very seldom that an attack such as that made upon the Japanese fisherman at Maui is heard of here.

SAYS IS SUBJECT OF KING HENRY

GHRAUNT EITHER MISTAKEN, A PERJURER OR IS A MODERN METHUSALA.

How old is Charles Ghraunt? His age The most beautiful Fall Millinery is of filing application for American citizenship, as 62 years, but in the same document he declares himself to be a subject of King Henry Seventh, of England. According to the best historical authority this character of Shakespeare has been dead for some four hundred years, so if Ghraunt was ever a subject of his, he must be in the same class with Methusala.

The paper in which this rather remarkable statement occurs in no less than two places, has been received at the Land Office, as Mr. Ghraunt wishes to purchase some government land in the Territory. The form of intention was made out at Hilo, on July 26th, 1902, in the days of Judge Little, and was made in due form and sworn to before Daniel Porter, Clerk without question.

The application will probably not get his land, for the reason that he is a native Javan, and under the laws comes under the class of Mongolians and is not eligible to citizenship in the United States.

New York is to have blood hounds added to its police force and representatives are already bargaining for some of the best dogs of this breed in the country. Following the lead of Paris, where dogs have been for some time aiding the police in the capture of criminals, the dogs for New York will be apportioned to every district and will be thoroughly trained in their work. It has been shown that a good bloodhound will successfully run down a man whose scent is many hours old and which has been left even in a crowded city and great work is expected from these marvellous creatures. The very announcement that they are coming has already had a deterrent effect on the crime wave which has this Summer swept over the metropolis.

GUNS KEPT BOOMING MATERIAL FOR FORTS

THE FRENCH CRUISER CATINAT COMES IN FROM TAHITI AND WILL RECEIVE TOMORROW.

Twenty-one guns for the Stars and Stripes, belching from the sides of the wicked little Catinat. Then three times seven, gun for gun, from the Naval Station saluting battery for the Tri-Color of La Belle France. And then more guns. Thirteen explosions from the Frenchman's ports in honor of Admiral Very, Uncle Sam's biggest Navy man here. Thirteen roars from the Naval Station's twins, gun answering for gun as is usual when foreigners are addressed, in honor of Commodore Buchard aboard the cruiser.

Still the batteries had something to say, for Acting-Consul Marques called aboard the Catinat and as he left he got seven noisy blanks. A little later Commodore Buchard, accompanied by First Flag Lieutenant Mazare and Flag Sub-Lieutenant Thierry d'Argenlieu, marched from the Catinat to the Naval Station where they were received with full honors by Admiral Very, in uniform. The Admiral's carriage was at the Commodore's disposal when he was ready to return to the cruiser and the U. S. Marines were lined up; there was a ruffle of the drum and a flourish of the bugle and, as the distinguished Naval men left the Admiral's headquarters, the saluting battery served another succession of honorary thunders.

Again, later in the forenoon, powder was burned to the glory of international friendship. Admiral Very and staff called aboard the French cruiser, being received by a detachment of armed jackies, a ruffle and a flourish and thirteen guns.

The Catinat arrived early this morning, docking at the Naval wharf at 8 o'clock. She is 9 days from Tahiti, having left the island on Oct. 3. Pleasant weather was experienced to port and no accident marred the pleasure of the run. All aboard are well and all are glad to see Honolulu. The cruiser was here in February last and this is her third visit to Oahu.

There are many things about the Catinat which excite interest. She is a formidable cruiser of 4000 tons and carries 400 men and 20 officers. Her men are as active a lot as one would expect. It has been shown that a good bloodhound will successfully run down a man whose scent is many hours old and which has been left even in a crowded city and great work is expected from these marvellous creatures. The very announcement that they are coming has already had a deterrent effect on the crime wave which has this Summer swept over the metropolis.

Major John W. Ruckman of the coast artillery arrived in the U. S. A. transport Sherman this afternoon from San Francisco for duty in connection with the fortification of this island. Major Ruckman is the head of the board which has the fortification work in charge.

In her hold the Sherman brings one thousand barrels of cement to be used in fortification operations here.

The Sherman is bound for Manila with the Eighteenth Infantry. She left San Francisco last Saturday afternoon. When thirteen hundred miles at sea she talked by wireless with North Point, Washington. She also conversed with the transport Logan, bound north, at a distance of 125 miles. She was unable to get Honolulu until close in.

Aboard the transport 1209 persons, as follows: 115 cabin, 54 second cabin, 848 steerage, 192 crew. She is carrying 2,500 tons of cargo for Manila and has 236 tons for Honolulu and 100 tons for Guam. She brought no mail.

Two millions of dollars in specie are in the Sherman's treasure vaults for use in the Philippines.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA CITY
GIVES A VERY STRONG ENDORSEMENT OF HAWAII'S GREAT PROJECT—IMPROVEMENT OF HARBOR NECESSARY FOR PROTECTION OF COMMERCE OF THE PACIFIC.

The following resolution and letter from the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce were received this morning by the Chamber of Commerce relative to Pearl Harbor and other improvements here:

"Whereas, there is an immediate demand for dry dock facilities in Hawaii, the strategic center of the Pacific both for commercial and naval needs, and
"Whereas, Pearl Harbor, near Honolulu, one of the finest natural harbors in the world, completely landlocked with an extended area of safe anchorage, capable of accommodating the largest vessels afloat is admirably situated for this purpose, and
"Whereas, the building of a suitable dry dock, no matter how quickly erected upon and diligently prosecuted, cannot but consume much time in completion and will, in fact, scarcely be in readiness for the opening of the Panama Canal;
"Now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, that the early widening, deepening and straightening of the Pearl Harbor channel, which is absolutely necessary in order to make this splendid harbor available for deep water vessels, is a matter of the greatest importance, not simply to the Navy or to the Commercial Interests of the Territory of Hawaii, but also in our opinion, is an absolute necessity for the proper safeguarding of Trans-Pacific commerce, which is now witnessing such a rapid development."

"H. P. Wood, Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Honolulu.
"Dear Mr. Wood:—I enclose herewith copy of resolution passed by our Board of Directors at the meeting held September 25. A copy will be forwarded to each of our representatives in Congress. Yours truly,
"H. B. GURLEY,
"Acting Secretary."
Other letters received are as follows:
"Dear Mr. Wood:—I beg to state that at a meeting of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, held yesterday, the resolutions passed by you August 28th, 1907, and sent to us, were duly endorsed and I have notified our Representatives and Senators of such endorsement. Yours very truly,
"E. C. GILTNER,
"Secretary Portland Chamber of Commerce."

ROOSEVELT'S LATEST AMERICA NOT IN IT

WASHINGTON, October 4.—
The opinion of the Attorney-General, announced today, that it is legal and feasible to employ foreign bottoms for carrying coal for the Pacific fleet, opens the door for the award of 90 per cent of the coal contracts to such foreign vessels.
One American vessel will carry about 12,000 tons. The American shipowners appear to have been disappointed in the offer made to them of an additional 10 per cent if they would do the work. The awards probably will be announced tomorrow.
"To allow the public lands to be worked by the tenants of rich men is little less than a crime."
"The one intolerable position for a self-respecting nation, as for a self-respecting man, is to bluff and not make good."
"The people who live in the country districts make up what is on the whole the most valuable asset in our national life."
"The only permanent way to help a man is to help him to help himself."
"All that the law can do is to punish evil, to encourage what is good and secure equality of opportunity."—Address at Memphis, Oct. 4.
